IN THE LAP OF LUXURY: SEE INSIDE THE INCREDIBLE ASTON MARTIN RESIDENCES IN MIAMI

CHARLIE CALVER 6 JULY 2021

Lockdown wouldn't be so bad if you could live here.

Aston Martin has been making some notable moves away from the road over the past few years. This year, they announced a partnership with the historic watch marque Girard-Perregaux to create a beautiful Tourbillon with Three Flying Bridges. Back in 2017, they revealed a luxury apartment building in Miami named the Aston Martin Residences.

Now, four years later, fans of all things luxury have been given a look inside the 66-story skyscraper and its splendid assortment of apartments, penthouses, and one triplex (which comes with an Aston Martin Vulcan).

Looking over the Biscayne Bay just west of South Beach, the Aston Martin Residences are made up of 38 oceanfront condos on the 15th floor, seven penthouses on the 56th, and the aforementioned triplex which goes for a whopping $66 million.

Each apartment is fitted with modern interiors featuring sleek white walls, floors, and ceilings punctuated by modern black marble. The relatively subtle design cues allow the aqua blues of the Atlantic to filter into floor-to-ceiling windows that line each room. We wouldn't expect anything less from the always tasteful British car masters.

All tenants of the Aston Martin Residences will also gain access to a four-story 'Sky Amenities' facility. Covering 42,275 square feet across the four levels, the amenities are much more than just your standard gym and showers. Hold on tight because this is ridiculous:

Firstly, there is the marina. Obviously, if you live in one of these apartments, you've got a yacht so thank goodness you can moor it in your personal marina.

Next, let's look at Level 52. Here you will find a curated art gallery, business centre, conference room, kids playroom, teen centre, gaming room and vending area. Sounds like heaven for everyone from overworked business people and their fortunate children alike.

On to level 53, the wellness floor. There's a boxing room, spinning room, gym, spa, sauna, meditation room, beauty salon, treatment room and barbershop. Seriously, there is no reason to leave this place.

Level 54 is much of the same with two movie cinemas and a virtual golf centre, but the final floor (55) has a private dining room that looks over a huge infinity pool with views straight onto the Atlantic.

If that wasn't enough for you, guess what? There is also a personal butler service.

More and more this place looks worth the ridiculous price tags. Imagine spending the pandemic there, you genuinely wouldn't want for anything.

Take a tour of the condos and penthouses below and let yourself daydream of those incredible ocean views while the butler waits on you hand and foot.
